2009 annual report
The Aliveness Project

Since 1985, The Aliveness Project has grown to become a community leader in making a positive impact on those living with HIV/AIDS in Minnesota.

Our hot meals, food shelf, case management, educational programs, integrative therapies, holiday baskets and other free services make a positive impact each day. For those who are newly infected or who have been living with HIV for a longer period, The Aliveness Project empowers them to find ways to improve their health and live positively.

At The Aliveness Project, our members find a place of acceptance, peace and even joy. A nutritious meal shared with friends. Food shelf items that help low-income individuals live independently. Case managers who help members find work or a place to live. A therapeutic massage. Quality time with people who “get it.”

On behalf of our members, Board of Directors, volunteers and staff, we want to express our gratitude to people like you who have generously supported the services provided to 1,572 members living with this disease in 2009.

To the hundreds of volunteers who served meals in our dining room, filled food shelf bags, worked on a committee, provided healing therapies, delivered holiday baskets, and assisted with many other important tasks, we express a sincere “thanks” for caring enough to help improve the lives of our members.

This year marked the beginning of the most ambitious project in our history. Last summer we purchased a building at 3808 Nicollet Avenue—the new home of The Aliveness Project. We also kicked off a three-year capital campaign for the renovation of the building. We need the support of people like you to make our dream a reality in the coming year!

We are honored to be part of a community that has so generously supported The Aliveness Project throughout the past 25 years. Thank you for remembering those living with HIV/AIDS and helping us to make a positive impact!

I am María, and I'm positive.

I have no family in this country.

The Aliveness Project is my support group in place of my family.

Since 1985, The Aliveness Project has served a growing number of individuals living with HIV/AIDS. In 2009, we added 182 new members—an average of 14 per month.

Last year, 1,572 members used our services—twice as many as ten years ago. We serve HIV-positive individuals and their families living throughout Minnesota. The demographics of our members closely mirror the HIV/AIDS epidemic in our state.

I am Antonio, and I'm positive.

At The Aliveness Project the food is not only the food—it's the connection with people. You know the people sitting across from you are HIV positive. You can talk freely. I feel completely comfortable here just sharing what I am.

To me, The Aliveness Project is like a family. They make you feel welcome. People care about you. It's hard for people who live with HIV—hard to find people willing to help. I was homeless for quite a few years. I wouldn't have been able to find my apartment without help from my case manager at The Aliveness Project.

I am Andy, and I'm positive.

When I was diagnosed I went through a major depression. At The Aliveness Project you're not alone—you're in a community. You see other people who have what you have. I would have isolated myself...who knows what would have happened? This place kept me alive.

Supportive Services

I am DeWayne, and I'm positive.

Keeping the secret can depress you.
The Aliveness Project is a place to get away from society and talk about all the things going on. A few times I was lying on my deathbed. Even my family didn't come.
But people from The Aliveness Project did.

The first cases of HIV/AIDS were reported in the United States in June of 1981. Since that time, more than 1.7 million people in the U.S. have been infected with HIV. That number includes more than 580,000 who have already died and more than 1.1 million Americans living with HIV.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) estimated that approximately 56,300 people were newly infected with HIV in 2006 (the most recent year that statistics are available). This was a substantial increase over previous estimates of 40,000 new infections per year.

Based on these numbers, every 9½ minutes someone in the United States is infected with HIV. Of those living with HIV/AIDS, one out of five do not know they are infected.

Despite new therapies, people with HIV still develop AIDS. More than 14,000 people with AIDS die each year in the United States. So, HIV/AIDS is still a significant health issue for Americans.

In 2009, the number of new HIV infections in Minnesota rose by 13%, the biggest increase in 17 years. The number of new cases grew from 326 in 2008 to 368 last year. The largest cluster was among young gay and bisexual men (15-24 years old)— 77 cases, compared to 42 in 2008.

At the end of 2009, 6,552 individuals were identified as living with HIV or AIDS in Minnesota, a 5.3% increase since 2008. Some additional 2009 statistics:

- + Since 2000, one third of those who tested HIV-positive either had full-blown AIDS or progressed to an AIDS diagnosis within one year.
- + In 2009, persons 50 and older made up 29% of people living with HIV, compared to 16% in 2002 (due largely to therapies that now delay the progression to AIDS.)
- + There are more Minnesotans living with HIV than ever before and, as a result, more people in need of the services offered by The Aliveness Project. Last year, one in four Minnesotans living with HIV/AIDS used our services.

I am Hazel, and I'm positive.

I love coming to The Aliveness Project for lunch and visiting with people. I can always come here and find people to visit with, talk to, be here for me. And I love being a volunteer. They've given me so much—I just want to give back.

Volunteer Services

Our Volunteer Program is the heart of The Aliveness Project. Last year 1,072 individuals served as volunteers.

Volunteers include individuals and a variety of community and workplace groups. Together they contributed more than 31,000 hours of caring service in 2009.

Last year, our volunteers included:

- + Members of The Aliveness Project
- + Community members who have a personal concern for people living with HIV/AIDS
- + People from a wide range of ages—from children to senior citizens
- + Residents of the Twin Cities and Greater Minnesota. Our volunteers also come from other states and countries from throughout the world
- + Volunteer teams from corporations, schools, colleges and faith communities

Volunteers play a vital role at all levels of our organization and programs, including:

- + Board of Directors
- + Building/facilities
- + Capital Campaign
- + Data entry and office work
- + Dining Out For Life and other events
- + Errand drivers
- + Food Shelf Program and food drives
- + Holiday Basket Program
- + Housekeeping and maintenance
- + Integrative therapies
- + Kitchen helpers
- + Library
- + Membership Advisory Committee
- + Minnesota Red Ribbon Ride
- + Newsletter and mailings
- + Pet clinics
- + Professional consulting
- + Reception desk
- + Volunteer recognition event

I'm Barb, and I'm a volunteer.

The collective work of our volunteers is invaluable. For the year 2009, the Independent Sector estimated that volunteer time is worth $21.16 per hour. In 2009, volunteers contributed over 31,000 hours of service in all of our programs and events. So, our volunteers' service was worth more than $634,000! We would have to increase our annual operating budget by 65% or hire 14 full-time staff to complete the work of these dedicated individuals and groups!

Our Volunteers

The Aliveness Project acknowledges and thanks our 2009 volunteers! Please accept our apology if we inadvertently omitted or misspelled your name!

I am Far, and I'm positive.

with HIV, but for them
it's better not to know
you have the disease.
My family disowned
me five years ago.

I am Tim, and I'm positive.

“Humans are adaptable, but there comes a point when we can’t adjust anymore. The organization’s ability to adapt to its space has reached its limit. We had to open a different door.”

—Charles Levin, architect

Capital Campaign

The Aliveness Project is currently serving twice as many individuals living with HIV/AIDS as we did 10 years ago—in a building designed to serve 400.

In June 2009, The Aliveness Project officially launched a $2.25 million Capital Campaign for the purchase and renovation of a new and permanent home, located at Nicollet Avenue and 38th Street in South Minneapolis.

Just a few blocks from its current building, the organization’s new home will provide substantially more programming and administrative space, improved accessibility, larger food shelf and dining room, and other features that will better serve the growing number of members for many years to come.

As of December 31, 2009, approximately $500,000 had been committed to the Capital Campaign and a large number of potential funding sources had been identified.

Daniel Boyer, Financial Advisor with Ameriprise Financial, and Elizabeth Glidden, Minneapolis City Council Member, accepted the roles of Campaign Co-Chairs in early 2009. This attracted 19 other businesses and community leaders to join the Campaign Committee. Each member is responsible for introducing the Campaign to prospective foundations, corporations, individual donors and other funding sources.

An impressive, compelling Campaign publication was designed on a pro-bono basis (valued at over $21,000) by IMAGEHAUS, a Minneapolis firm known for its creativity, quality and responsiveness to its clients.

Response to the Campaign has been heartening so far. We anticipate that most of the funding will be committed in 2010. Our members, staff and volunteers are very excited about this new home for The Aliveness Project.
